IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff,) 8:15CR247
VS.	ORDER
JAQUAN WASHINGTON, BLAYNE L. MC COY and EDWARD DAVIS,	}
Defendants	{

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Edward Davis (Davis) (Filing No. 45). Davis seeks additional time in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Davis has filed an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 46). Davis' counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted as to all defendants.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Davis' motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 45) is granted. All defendants are given until on or before October 7, 2015, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between September 8, 2015, and October 7, 2015, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 8th day of September, 2015.
